Nursery Newsletter 25th September 2026

This week:

This week we have learnt a new Literacy text – 'Rosie's Walk', We began by looking at the front cover to predict which characters were in the story and what might happen. We also practised our actions for the story around our classroom – moving under, across, around and in between places using our bodies. We created our own storymap to help retell the story orally. In Maths, we have been beginning to look at 'sorting' objects by colour, shape and size – remembering the rule to help us sort different objects. We have enjoyed exploring lots of Autumn treasures talking about their size, shape, smell, texture and colour.

Next week:

Next week we are learning a new literacy text called 'You Choose' – where we will be exploring our homes and families! We will also be continuing our maths learning of sorting, and making our own rule for sorting objects in our classroom. We will also be exploring different materials and making marks to represent our families and people close to us!

Learning Links at home:

- Can you sort your clothes into colours? Can you sort them by person? (all of my clothes are in this pile!)
- Muffin trays and egg boxes – are great for sorting pom poms / beads by colour.
- Sorting socks into pairs!
- Sorting your toys into soft/ hard. Can you sort your toys and someone else's? (my toys are in this pile!)
- Can you sort cutlery? – spoons go here, then forks, then knives.
- Can you have a go at putting your coat/ jumpers on? Can you do the buttons/ zip up?
- Can you describe your home? Who do you live with? Can you have a go at drawing them?
